

SPECIFIC PROGRAMME OUTCOMES (PO)

TWO YEAR B.Ed. PROGRAMME

The outcomes of a Bachelor of Education (B.Ed) program typically include:

Programme Outcome 1 :

Knowledge of educational theories and practices: Graduates should have a solid understanding of various educational theories, teaching methodologies, and classroom management techniques.

Programme Outcome 2 :

Pedagogical skills: Students should develop effective teaching strategies and lesson planning abilities tailored to different learning styles and educational needs.

Programme Outcome 3 :

Subject-specific expertise: Depending on their specialisation, graduates should demonstrate proficiency in their chosen subject areas, enabling them to teach with depth and accuracy.

Programme Outcome 4 :

Assessment and evaluation skills: Graduates should be able to design, administer, and interpret assessments to measure student learning and progress effectively.

Programme Outcome 5 :

Classroom management: Graduates should be equipped with strategies for creating a positive and inclusive learning environment, managing student behaviour, and fostering student engagement.

Programme Outcome 6 :

Professionalism and ethical practice: Graduates should adhere to ethical standards and professional codes of conduct, demonstrating integrity, fairness, and respect for diversity in their interactions with students, colleagues, and communities.

Programme Outcome 7 :

Recognition of the importance of continuous professional development and a commitment to lifelong learning to enhance teaching practice and stay updated on educational trends and innovations.

Programme Outcome 8 :

Collaboration and communication: Ability to collaborate with colleagues, parents, and other stakeholders to support student learning and well-being, and effectively communicate with diverse audiences.