Ajitha Memorial Scholarship

Memorializing your loved one with a scholarship is a beautiful way to extend their legacy for years to come. Ajitha Memorial Scholarship is an initiative put forth by 'REMINISCENCE' the alumni association which honors Ajitha, a former student of Malabar B.Ed training college (English department) who succumbed to cancer. This is a scholarship awarded to the class topper of English department. This scholarship was introduced after the death of Ajitha, a proactive and determined student who lost herself to cancer after years and years of courageous fight. These scholarships inspire students to strive for excellence and pursue their dreams. It also serves as a reminder of the achievements and values embodied by the person. By providing financial support in the form of scholarships adds a meaningful and symbolic dimension to the aid received.

Fr. Manoj Ottaplakal Memorial Endowment

The legacy of an artist lives on through their work, but it can also be perpetuated through initiatives that support and encourage the artistic endeavors of others. The purpose of Fr. Manoj Ottaplakal Memorial Endowment is to honour the memory of Fr. Manoj Ottaplakal, a former student of Malabar B.Ed training college, taken too soon by the cruel hand of fate. This endowment is given to the winners of clay modeling competition. Fr. Manoj Ottaplakal was a renowned artist, who left a lasting impression through his world of art. The endowment encourages artistic excellence and fosters a sense of community and collaboration among artists. This also attracts talented artistic students from diverse backgrounds to showcase their skills to a wider audience. Through these competitions participants have the opportunity to refine their crafts, gain exposure and also help to raise awareness on the importance of clay modeling as an art form.

Involvement in-house Curriculum Development:

Another important aspect of their involvement is in- house curriculum development. Alumni provide feedback on course content and practical that helps in shaping the curriculum. The curriculum development committee meets regularly to discuss and implement plans and procedures for implementation of prescribed curriculum. In all such activities the institution ensures alumna's involvement in executing and following up the curricular practices. In the beginning of each program the authority of institution and teachers along with the alumni members discusses about the curricular and co-curricular activities and evaluation procedures. The alumni along with the principal and teachers made various changes in the curricular and co-curricular activities.

Support to Curriculum Delivery

The core of the B.Ed program is internship. Orienting students about internship is a collective endeavour. Teacher educators, peers and alumni are playing a greater role in this process. Every academic year the institution invites Alumni to take demonstration classes and provide necessary orientation for student teachers. P.R Ranjith, alumni of Malabar B.Ed training college inaugurated the demonstration class. Our alumnaes Ajmal P presented a demo lesson of social science as part of curriculum and Mr.Prajith C give information about mathematical lesson plan construction. Reshma Robert and Maneesh are also demonstrated classes on other subjects. The kaleidoscope classroom: Illuminating education through colourful teaching. Malabar BED training college conducted a minuscule session on Art Education led by our alumni Fr.Manoj Ottaplackal on 22nd February 2022 at college Seminar hall. The session focused on various art techniques like painting, drawing and even sculpture. The artist Fr. Manoj Ottaplackal taught students different artistic styles and also encouraged the students to explore their creativity.

Student Mentoring

Student mentoring is a common practice among alumni. They provide opportunities for current students to interact with them regarding academic areas. Discussions often involve syllabus content, recommended books, and micro teaching techniques, school acclimatization and school internship.

Financial Contribution

Alumni actively contribute in the fund raising activities of the institution. Since the institution is closely associated with other charity organizations, Alumni play a major role in expanding the network. In terms of financial contributions the alumni provide necessary items for the college such Book shelf, books for book bank, Plants, plant pots, traditional lamp, Cooler and Clock. Malabar B Ed Training College had collected an alumni registration fee for the further development of college alumni. The alumni association is also considering implementing “Ajitha Memorial Scholarship” for the top scorer of English option in the university exams. Memorial Scholarship Fund is an initiative put forth by the alumni association which honors Ajitha, our alumni. This scholarship was introduced after the death of Ajitha a proactive student who lost herself to cancer. The alumni association is also considering Fr. Manoj Ottaplakal Memorial Endowment to honor the memory of Fr. Manoj Ottaplakal, our alumni. This endowment is given to the winners of clay modeling competition. Through their contributions and dedication alumni association help to ensure that our college remains at the forefront of academic excellence and continue to inspire future generations of students.
